Group Policy Endorsement

This endorsement forms part of the Group Policy. This is an important document which should be read in conjunction with the Group Policy and kept with all other Group Policy documents.

Details of changes to the Group Policy are shown below. These changes are included for all Policyholders who are eligible to be covered under the Group Policy. The Group Policyholder must give a copy of this endorsement to each eligible Policyholder at the time they are accepted for cover under the Group Policy.

Changes to Cover

Delayed Return

In the event that the Beneficiary's return to their Home Country is unavoidably delayed, due to a new or re-emergence of previous epidemic or pandemic, the Period of Cover is automatically extended for the period of the delay up to a maximum of 60 days (or until the Beneficiary leaves the UK, whichever is the earlier).

This endorsement extends to all sections of cover.

All other terms, conditions and exclusions of the whole of the Group Policy apply to this endorsement.

There is no additional premium for this endorsement.
